

Neil Mason (PCC, ICF)
Faculty

Neil Mason is an ICF Certified Professional Coach (PCC). He works with leaders and emerging leaders in corporate, education as well as in the non-profit and faith areas. He has a wide experience working internationally with clients from Africa, Europe, WACA, Asia, Australia, North and South America.

Neil has a degree in Education from the University of Porto, Portugal, and a postgraduate certificate in Coaching and Mentoring from the University Gloucestershire in the UK. He teaches an Intercultural Intelligence course at the University of Porto.

He has worked in education for over 30 years as a teacher, teacher trainer, and textbook writer, but since 2012 has focussed on corporate training and executive leadership coaching. As a coach trainer he has worked with the International Leadership Coaching Academy as part of the faculty training new coaches on an ICF accredited programme.