

Pranesh Anandlal (PCC, ICF)
DIRECTOR

MA in Business and Executive Coaching, Wits Business School,
Johannesburg, South Africa

Pranesh Anandlal is a Business and Executive coach, trainer and facilitator with over 25 years of experience in developing individuals and fostering transformational change within their professional environments. He works with a diverse range of global clients and organisations in the private, public and the NGO sectors, drawing deeply from his core belief that people who unlock their potential can be more purposeful, profitable and impactful. Pranesh is associated lecturer with Wits Business School and supervises their Masters students doing Business and Executive coaching research in South Africa. He is a South African national, but has lived and worked in Albania, Hungary and other parts of Europe for nearly 20 years. He is also registered as a Master Coach with COMENSA, and as a Professional Certified Coach with ICF. He is a skilful and passionate coach trainer and facilitator.